

Alan Fossa

Alan Fossa lives in Toms River, New Jersey with his wife Judy with whom he has been happily married for 46 years. They have two sons who are both married: Salvio and his wife, Kristen and Sergio and his wife, Tammy. They all live in Tom River and have blessed Al and Judy with seven wonderful grandchildren, all who have or are attending Ambassador Christian Academy.

After teaching instrumental music in the public schools for 34 years, Alan Fossa retired from a successful career teaching music at Carteret High School in Carteret, New Jersey. After retirement, Mr. Fossa began leading the Music Ministry at Grace Bible Church with his wife Judy, served as a Deacon for eleven years and later became an elder at Grace in 2018. He joined the ACA Board in 2006 after watching his oldest granddaughter, Maddie, who was only in kindergarten at the time, recite all of the U.S. Presidents in order. He immediately became a strong and ardent supporter of Classical Christian education. After 34 years teaching in the public schools, Mr. Fossa finally found the missing key that could unlock the hearts and minds of all students: Classical Christian Education.

A musician by trade, Mr. Fossa still performs professionally with a variety of bands in the area. He has also been a member of Tim McLoone's HOLIDAY EXPRESS since 2008.
